

I rarely watch television anymore because of the violence/sex prevalent in so many shows. I work with children and see the awful effect that violent shows and video games have on their sense of reality. Please work to lessen, even better -- end, violent programming on television. No one should be "entertained" by violence.